VOLUME XI

Foreword

May this annual in the years to come prove one of your most cherished possessions, recalling pleasant memories and happy associations of the past four years. This book was published to record some of our activities and achievements, and we trust it will prove both an inspiration and guidance to all future graduation classes of Broadway High School.

The Class of '46 wishes to express their deep appreciation to the faculty and members of the student body who have cooperated with us in making this "REFLECTOR" possible.

DEDICATION

In dedicating this volume of the "Reflector" to

MR. CLARENCE A. PHILLIPS

We wish to express our deep appreciation for his guidance, devotion, patience and lending hand during our senior year, and who has so unselfishly given of his time and effort that this "Memory Book" might be published.

ADVERTISEMENTS

MR. J. FRANK HILLYARD

Principals' Message:

It is desirable that we sometimes look back over the months that have passed to see how well we have been doing, and how we may profit from our successes or failures. If your work has been good, if your grades have been high and if you have done well in outside work, you are to be congratulated. But you cannot afford to be satisfied with what you have done. The better your mind is the greater are your responsibilities. By increased effort you can become a real leader, and leaders are badly needed in this troubled world. The problems which rise before us in our own country and in our international relations are too much for ordinary people. They can be solved only if people of superior ability are willing to work tirelessly for the public good as well as for their own advancement.

If your grades have been poor and your work has not been satisfactory, what are you to do about it? My first suggestion is that you should not be discouraged. Don't give up and assume that you can never do well. You are too young for that. Your life still lies before you. There is plenty of time provided you use it. Find out why your record was unsatisfactory. Perhaps you really didn't really try, didn't work hard enough. Or you may not have followed the best habits of study. Or you may need to enroll in different subjects. Find out what is wrong and profit by your mistakes. Mistakes and failures are serious only when we do not use them as lessons to guide our future conduct.

We make this our Last Will and Testament:

We, the class of 1946 of Broadway High School, realizing we are setting out on a long and dangerous journey from which many of us may never return, deem it wise to make our will and dispose of all personal and collective property which we have accumulated in the last four years.

We, the Senior class, being of sound and disposing mind and memory and first in the hearts of the Juniors, do hereby make and publish this Last Will and Testament.

Our inheritance tax is to be paid out of the overflowing funds of the last four years which were swelled due to our good looks, sportsmanship in athletics, genius in contesting, and versatility and dramatic ability which attracted large crowds to all public functions.

One half of all our personal accounts is to be paid on our debt of gratitude to our teachers for their unfailing interest in us and for their endeavors to guide us in the right paths of thinking and living.

To Alma Mater we leave the Junior Class to fill our vacant places in the Senior Room.

I, Alvin Armentrout, having secured a surplus amount of experience in managing the Senior Year Book will part of this experience to Billy Southerly.

I, Charles Baker, will my winning smile, the glossy finish on my hair, my feminine complexion and the crease in my trousers to Gerald Spitzer.

I, George Clark, will my customary daily menu of; two dozen, Bill Early's, raw eggs, three Sundaes, four quarts of milk, some spinach and other things too numerous to mention to Clarence Moyers hoping that he will gain his long hoped for plumpness.

I, Carroll Crider, bequeath to Joan Whitmer some of my height Which I used so advantageously looking through the transom at teachers trying to teach their pupils monotonous facts.

I, A. W. Fitzwater, Jr., will my ear to Eugene Hillyard with the provision he can match my speed, also $5,000 to take care of any unforetold eventualities.

I, John Foltz, leave my old "comic books" read in chemistry to anyone who might enjoy them; also any rings which I do not let the freshmen girls wear to any junior girl who will not become jealous.

I, Carl Gray Hoover, a gentleman from Cork, will to Milton Showalter, my longing for a red wig, a corncob pipe and an old fashioned churn, hoping that they will become realities to amuse him in old age.

I, Marion Hulvey, will my ability to persue the girls in Holsinger town to Emerson Mason.

I, Ivan Mason, will the following mathematical equipment to Creela Kline, to work algebra; one pack of graph paper, a compass, two protractors, one ruler, and one fourth of my gray matter which I have developed in working algebra.

I, Rudolph Moomaw, bequeath my bashfulness to Wayne Turner with the provision he will spend most of his time in the post graduate room in the absence of girls.

I, Robert Renalds, will to my brother, Sidney, my love for study, my efficiency in pulling curtains, and my generosity in assisting the girls.

I, Walton Roller, will my position as president of the Senior class and manager of the basketball team to Earle Fike; and also my intense interest in the acquiring of a herd of pure-bred jersey dairy cows.

I, Audrea Armentrout, will my quiet ways, my pleasing personality, and my large rolling eyes to June Litton.

I, Cathleen Comer, will my length, width and breadth to Vonda Miller.

I, Velma Davis, will my quietness, my dignified manner and my lack of interest in numbers of boys, to Bonnie Turner.

I, Corinne Early, will my position as captain of the basketball team to Margaret Thompson, also my 146 points made in basketball as a challenge hoping she will exceed this mark next year.

I, Doris Gene Early, will to June Wittig, my witty ways, one sixteenth my interest in dramatics, and my becoming complexion which I had in the Senior play.

I, Eleanor Fawley, bequeath my lack of interest in boys and efficiency as secretary of the Senior class to Zella Turner.

I, Faye Fitzwater, will my wavy hair, my stately manners, and my hopes of becoming the First Lady of the Land, to Joan Ailebaugh.

I, Ruby Ford, bequeath my magnetic power to pull West Virginia boys across the border, to Arlene Estep.

I, Hope Fulk, would like to will to Lucille Dove, my rare collection of plant species; birch, bamboo, oak, weeping willow, and many others, provided she lets me keep my Reid.

I, Lillian Fulk, bequeath my lonesome hours, my dateless nights, and my dull week-ends to Winona Neff for one Bare date a month.

I, Dorothy Higgs, will to Polly Bazzle, my 708 pages of book-bound civics, perfectly untouched and unharmed provided she obeys all civic rights in using it.

I, Coleen Holsinger, will my gift of gab, seven days supply of chewing gum per week, and all question marks concerning the opposite sex to Virginia Pullins.

I, Peggy Holsinger, bequeath my old love letters to Charlotte Kline in order that they will not interfere with my reading of the Reid letters.

I, Beverly Kennedy, will to Kathryn Turner, my poetic tendencies hoping that they will be as winsome for you, Kathryn, as they were for me.

I, Anna Louise Kline, will my dignity, my conservative smile, and my stinginess with words to Mary Stuart Rhodes.

I, Rosalie Kline, will my excess weight and melodious voice to Connie Lam.

I, Ruby Lam, bequeath to Joan Strawderman, my quiet voice, my large mirrors, my long black comb, and my cosmetic compact provided she can master the art of using them successfully.

I, Peggy Leffel, will my interest in the Navy and the long miles from Harrisonburg to Broadway, to Catherine Phillips.

I, Vada Moyers, bequeath the intricate parts of my desk, 300 cu. feet of stale air, the floor space for my feet and 180 school days to Juanita Strickler.

I, Vallie Moyer, will to Mary Lohr my typing ability, my broad smile and my friendly disposition.

I, Neola Orebaugh, will to Peggy Reamer, all of the unfound practices in Home Economics which I will not need in keeping house.

I, Dorothy Pence, will my dimples, my position as basketball time-keeper and my earnestness in work, to Mary Mason.

I, Allison Roller, will to Wanda Scutter my ability to get along in algebra class, the time allotted to me, in English class to talk to Walton, and any A's and B's which she may need for graduation next year.

I, June Shumaker, bequeath my interest in khaki colors, my good sportsmanship, and my athletic ability to play softball to Ann Johnson.

I, Wilta Shumaker, bequeath my unused textbooks, my interest in major baseball and politics to Patsy Brown.

I, Hope Turner, will my bangs, my place in chemistry class and my one-live fear of becoming an old maid, to Alice Hersh.

I, Vada Turner, will to Bonnie Crider my ability to make A's in bookkeeping, my knowledge of the hog and cattle market, and all my secret practices used in raising poultry.

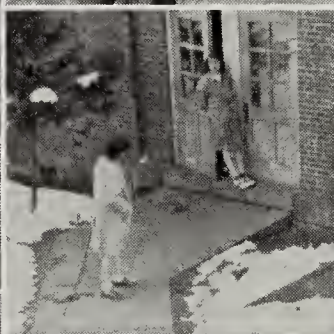

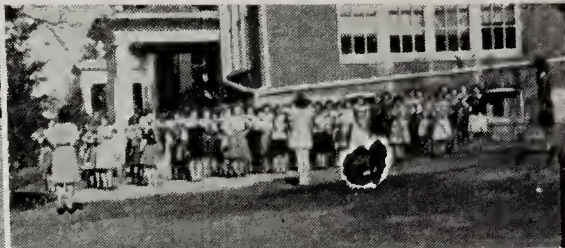

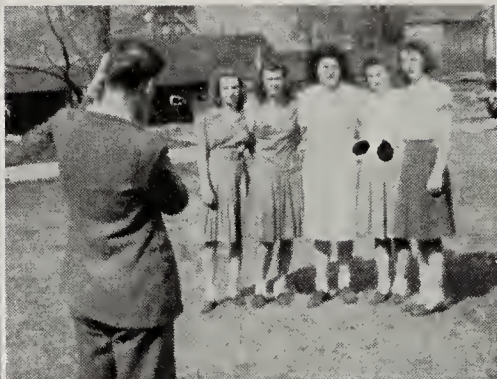

To the other juniors, the Senior class leaves the bared walls, the bare black board, the remaining leaves on the calendar, the vacant desks and all unfinished assignments.

ACTIVITIES

BAND

When the band was organized in 1934 by Miss Katherine Wilson it consisted of only a few members.

In 1936 the band had grown to thirty-four members and had acquired the leadership of Mr. Edgar Branner.

At the present time the total membership of the band is forty.

In October, the following were elected to serve as band officers during the school term:

President	Mary Stuart Rhodes
Vice-President	Billy Southerly
Treasurer	Marion Hulvey
Secretary	Bonnie Albrite
Librarian	Joan Allebaugh

On November 11th, the band made a good showing in the Armistice Day Parade held in Harrisonburg.

We attended the District Music Festival in Front Royal, March 23rd. The band made a rating of "Excellent".

We are now preparing for the State Music Festival which will be held at Richmond, April 12th. Our music consists of marches, overtures and numerous classics.

GLEE CLUB

President Corinne Early
Vice-President Coleen Holsinger
Secretary-Treasurer Margaret Thompson
Director Mr. Joseph Miller
Pianist Miss Brownie Lester

The club was organized at the beginning of the school year with a total of twenty-seven members, twenty-one girls and six boys under the direction of Mr. Joseph Miller.

We took part in the music festival at Front Royal, Virginia, on March 22, 1946. There we succeeded in getting a rating of excellent which will give us a chance to go to Richmond for the State Music Festival which is to be held April 13, 1946. One of our members, Earle Fike, Jr., sang a solo at Front Royal and was given the highest rank, superior.

Other activities in which we have taken part or expect to take part, are: Christmas program in Assembly, Spring Concert in April, music at commencement given by senior members of the club.

Miss Brownie Lester of the high school faculty has been our pianist again this year and we are grateful to her for her efforts.

We would also like to express our appreciation to Mr. Miller for his musical ability which he has kindly shared with us.

F. H. A.

The Future Home Makers of America, with fifty-nine members, have had a very busy year. The Juniors and Seniors made garments for the Junior Red Cross to send overseas. We helped the F. F. A. can food for oversea relief.

Some of our other activities were: Collecting waste fats and waste paper, contributing to the National War Fund and the Red Cross.

We gave a play entitled, "Our Neighbors Around The World." It was written by Lena Albrite, a member of the Home Economics Club.

The Officers are:

President	Margaret Thompson
Vice-President	Fleta Harpine
Secretary	Bernice Smith
Treasurer	Lillian Fulk

SPORTS

GIRL'S BASKETBALL

MARGARET THOMPSON — guard, is quick in obtaining the ball from the opponents and throwing it down the court. This is her first year on the varsity.

COLEEN HOLSINGER — her second year on the varsity, plays either position but especially noted for getting the ball off the opponents backboard.

NITA REAMER — guard, is a hard fighter and keeps the opponent from scoring many times. This being her first year she makes a promising player for the future.

BONNIE TURNER — guard, is short and a hard fighter who can with her opponent keeping her from scoring goals.

ELIZABETH ANN EARLY — has pep and fights her best when she enters the game playing either position. She's a freshman, a promising player for coming years.

LILLIAN FULK — forward, has been with the squad for two years, and can be depended upon when she enters the game.

BETTY LOU FIKE — forward, this being her first year on the varsity is ranking second in the highest number of goals. She has three years yet to play.

Another forward ranking high in goals is CATHERINE PHILLIPS. This is her first year on the varsity and she is planning to be with it next year.

CREELA KLINE — guard, has plenty of pep and is willing to scrap it out. She has been with the squad two years and still has another year.

CORINNE EARLY — forward, carried the honors of being captain and has the greatest number of points to her credit. She has been with the team for the past two years and the fans depended on her to bring the team on top.

BOY'S BASKETBALL

BILLY SOUTHERLY — forward, has seen two years with the squad, he's a very fast player. He has excellent promise of really playing ball next year.

EARLE FIKE — forward, is a strong offensive man and is good on the defense. This is his third year on the squad and the school is counting on him next year.

JACK MASON — forward, was co-captain and is one of the four returning lettermen this year. He has done some excellent work at center and the school hopes to see Jack next year on the court.

MARION HULVEY — shared the honors of being Captain and did some outstanding work as a guard this year. This is his third and final year on the squad as Marion is a senior.

RUDOLPH MOOMAW — is on the squad for the first time this year and played fine basketball at guard with Marion.

LYNN DRIVER — forward, was with the varsity this year for the first time and did very well although he didn't play in a great number of games.

JOHN FOLTZ — forward, did well since this is his first year on the squad. He also made a number of points.

CLAUDE BODKINS — center, has shown excellent promise in the few games he has played this year and will be a big addition to the squad the next two years.

BUDDY BROWN — guard, was with the varsity for the first time this year and really did some fine work helping Marion and Rudolph at guard.

CLARENCE SOUDER — guard, played in a few games with the varsity this year and should be a big help at guard next year.
